

Press Clippings from Wall Street Communications

Radio Magazine
July 24, 2006

The Australian Broadcasting Corporation has purchased Netia's Radio-Assist 7.5 digital audio content management system for on-air delivery in its seven News and Current Affairs and Radio networks across Australia. The software will be used throughout the ABC Radio Network and includes integration with Inews for the news department.